REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Twentieth Century movement puts before the Church a great opportunity and responsibility. We cannot show ourselves unworthy of the trust laid upon us by our beloved Church. We have accepted the trust. We must be true to it. Wherever the cause has been faithfully presented by our presiding elders and pastors our people have manifested an interest in it. The auspicious beginning of this year gives every promise of the final success of this movement. The General Board of Education being impressed with the necessity of a prompt and general effort throughout the connection, wisely recommended:

First. Organize a Twentieth Century fund committee in each charge, of which the pastor shall be chairman. This committee should be composed of one member for every 50 members of the church and in cooperation with the pastor, should push the movement with all possible vigor. Through this committee literature should be circulated and every member and friend of the church solicited to make an offering to this fund. We suggest that wherever practicable the committee be selected from those not already burdened with other financial church work.

Second. As the time is far spent, only one year remaining to complete this great work, pastors are urged to begin immediately after Conference the canvass for funds. Where there have been changes of pastors, they will get the roll books sent to their predecessors and keep a faithful record of all donations and by whom given.

Third. We earnestly request pastors to report monthly or oftener to the Conference Secretary of Education, who in turn will report to the General Secretary at Nashville.

Reports show that fully one-third of this amount laid upon our Conference is subscribed.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

The President reports an increased enrollment of students. The work being done by the student body gives entire satisfaction. The canvassing by several of the professors during vacation is highly appreciated and is fruitful of good results. The college is worthy the support of our people.

COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

The opening in September was most encouraging. The religious atmosphere of a Christian home is zealously maintained. The girls are engaged in the systematic study of the Bible. The board of trustees has accepted with regret the resignation of Dr. John A. Rice, to take effect June 4th, 1900. His earnest and faithful labors in interest of the college are worthy of all commendation and are highly appreciated by the Conference. Rev. W. W. Daniel, D. D., has been chosen to succeed him. His election gives hope for the continued success of the institution.

WILLIAMSTON FEMALE COLLEGE.

This institution has the largest enrollment in her history. The work done is of the most thorough nature. Our people may, with full assurance, entrust their daughters to its care.

FITTING SCHOOLS.

Wofford and Carlisle Fitting Schools, with the Cokesbury Conference School, are sharing in the general success of our educational institutions. They fill a necessary place in our educational work.

We request the Bishop to make the following appointments: J. W. Kilgo, Conference Secretary of Education; John A. Rice, President of Columbia Female College; S. Lander, President of Williamston Female College; G. W. Walker, President of Paine Institute; W. S. Stokes, Rector of Cokesbury Conference School; L. F. Beaty, assistant Editor Sunday School literature; W. W. Daniel, agent of the Columbia Female College.

We nominate J. L. Glenn as a trustee of Wofford College in place of G. W. Gage, resigned. As trustees of Columbia Female College, W. L. Wait in place of J. W. Daniel, resigned, and P. A. Hodges in place of L. D. Childs, deceased; M. M. Brabham as trustee of Cokesbury Conference School in place of D. Z. Dantzler, deceased.

We ask that 4,000 be raised to help pay the current expenses of Wofford College; that $450 be raised for general education, and that $750 be raised for Paine and Lane Institutes.

H. B. BROWNE, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Books and periodicals are more attractive, more helpful and cheaper now than ever in the history of literature. The best talent, the highest culture and most unselfish toil are now the strength of the Christian press. The success of the M. E. Church, South, in furnishing for her members reading matter of the best character in thought and form commands recognition from all who appreciate beauty and truth in life and in the printed page.

The exhibit of those who have our publishing interest in charge shows that every effort is being made to give to our people, young and old, strong and wholesome reading, presented in durable and attractive form. If these publications had the circulation that they deserve we would be a more loyal, more intelligent and a more spiritual people.

It is thought that one drawback to this department of our Church is the unnecessary number of different organs. One paper or magazine could be made to serve the purpose of two or three. The result of a concentration of forces would be better and cheaper service and an increase in the number of homes and families in which the publications of the church are found.

We commend to the attention of the Methodists of South Carolina The Southern Christian Advocate, The Christian Advocate (Nashville), The Methodist Review, The Epworth Era, The Review of Missions and the Sunday school magazines and Sunday school papers of our church.

Every preacher or layman who adds to the list of subscribers of the above-mentioned periodicals does a work for the M. E. Church, South, the influence of which cannot be overestimated.

We find the paper, ink and proof-reading of The Southern Christian Advocate not satisfactory. Changes for the better in these respects would make the official organ of the South Carolina Conference more attractive and more useful.

H. BAER, Chairman.

J. A. GAMEWELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF ADVOCATE PUBLISHING COMMITTEE.

The publishing committee of The Southern Christian Advocate beg leave to report:

The editorial conduct of the paper has maintained its usual high standard. Under the guiding hand of Dr. John O. Willson, The Advocate has been loyal to Methodism, and helpful to all the interests of the Church in every department of its work.

Dr. S. A. Weber has been faithful and efficient in his work, and has constantly added to the interest of the paper. The paper has regularly made its weekly visits to the homes of our people, and we are glad to state has had a larger circulation this year than last.

The new publishers, The State Company, have labored under peculiar difficulties for the greater part of the year, and have been unable to satisfy themselves or the publishing committee in the matter of quality of paper and some other minor matters. The paper market has been greatly disturbed and unsettled; a paper trust has controlled largely the market, and they have been unable to secure the quality of paper they desired and the contract calls for. These difficulties are passing away, some improvements have been made and we are assured that others needed soon will be.

The royalty account has been audited and found to be correct. The committee have carefully examined and approved each item of expenditure.

We desire to call the attention of the members of the Conference to the fact that the contract with the publishers binds us to work faithfully for the extension of the circulation of the paper.

J. S. BEASLEY, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Our home fields present a demand that specially appeals to the heart of the church. Beginning at Jerusalem was the prerequisite of "going into all the world." The poor we have always with us, and their poverty is not always that of purse, but of heart and mind. There is a crying demand for missionaries, who with souls aflame with God's love, will dare to consecrate themselves to the destitute home fields. Many barren wastes can be gloriously reclaimed, and in turn become the reclamer of other wastes, if only there could be furnished enough money and the right kind of men. Of course, there are a few fields that could not be materially improved by any outlay of money or men. These soon discover themselves, however. But others gloriously respond to the tiller's toil. For such the board has made advanced appropriations with the hope that the appointing powers may furnish strong workers for these largely uncultivated fields. The board pledges itself on its part to further increased appropriations, provided the appointing powers on their part will furnish able men to such works. And God speed the day when the cross attaching to an appointment to a domestic mission field may be converted into a glorious crown.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We note with great gratification the increased interest taken in the Sunday School work by many of the pastors. The pastor is, by virtue of his office, the general superintendent of the Sunday School and should give it his personal supervision.

Inasmuch as the great need of every school is efficient and consecrated teachers, it is incumbent upon the authorities of the school to see that, so far as practicable, these be secured, and to utilize every possible means to more thoroughly equip them for their work.

We would suggest that the excellent literature so thoroughly prepared by our Sunday School editors and sent out by our publishers be extensively used, especially urging that all our teachers be supplied with the Magazine. We would also urge that, where possible, normal methods of Sunday School work be introduced, recommending that either the normal lessons given in the Magazine or others of like character be used. While we are glad that so many of our schools observe "Children's Day," we are sorry that so many neglect this institution.

We would call attention to the fact that the observance of this day is not optional, but obligatory. Let every school in the Conference observe the day this year. We would request that each charge receiving aid from the Board report to us annually as to progress made and good accomplished.

J. S. BEASLEY, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your committee begs leave to report. We are profoundly grateful to the great head of the Church for the reports which come to us concerning the work of the American Bible Society. There is a continually increasing demand for the Bible, as it is prepared by this Society. Other fields are being entered and opened up by its agents. Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippine islands. In these islands of the sea the Romanists have hitherto suppressed the Scriptures. Nearly every heathen land is now more easily reached by the agents of the Society.

The receipts of the Society show a large increase for the past year, yet the Methodists of South Carolina have permitted their contributions to fall off nearly 50 per cent.

This ought not to be so; therefore,

Resolved, That we not only commend the work of the American Bible Society, but that we also make more earnest efforts to support it.

G. P. WATSON.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

Your committee respectfully submit the following report:

We have carefully examined each of the ten District Conference journals and are glad to note a uniform improvement in the care with which these records are kept from year to year. They show painstaking care on the part of the different secretaries, which we believe evidences a growing interest in the preservation of the history which we are making. The only exception to this general improvement is to be found in the journals of the Rock Hill and the Florence Districts. The former bears evidences of haste and some degree of carelessness in transcribing the records of this year, while in the latter the handwriting is not as legible as it ought to be.

With the exception of the District Conference Journal of the Spartanburg

District, these books are all durably bound and admirably adapted to the preservation of these important records.

G. EDWIN STOKES, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Of the many vital questions confronting the church today, the right observance of the Sabbath stands first.

Our religion, however pretentious; our liberty, however secure, all stand or fall with the Christian Sabbath.

France thought one day in seven too much time wasted, and one in ten became, not a Sabbath, but a day of revelry and sin. France is dying and her "shame is her boast and her pride." Our northern cities have, in a great measure, turned the Sabbath into a day of pleasure and play. The result being that anarchy stands close by in the shadows, ready soon to hurl to ruin the fabric of society whose foundations are already undermined. This tide of Sabbath desecration is gradually drifting southward, and even now its waves are breaking upon our shores. Our larger cities and summer resorts are yielding to the tempter, with hardly a protest even feebly heard from those who could resist. Hard indeed will be the task to withstand further encroachments of this evil—harder still to win back the ground already lost. Who will "come to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty?" Who, but his own disciples, those called to preach His word?

We believe this the great privilege of the ministry, to redeem our Sabbath from flagrant desecration.

We would suggest two modes of operation: Let the pulpit commit itself definitely to this work, and let the Christian press be engaged to exert its influence in the same direction. Wherefore, be it resolved:

First, That on the second Sunday in February the ministers of the South Carolina Conference preach on "The Right Observance of the Sabbath."

Second, That on the week before the second Sunday in February The Southern Christian Advocate give special prominence to this subject.

Third, That we endorse the work and purpose of the "Sunday League of America."

J. E. BEARD, Chairman.

W. J. SNYDER, Secretary.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

There is no doubt about the fact that the Epworth League work is not what it should be in our State. In some sections the organization is live and progressive. The young people are greatly enthused over the opportunities that it presents for individual development and aggressive work for God. The older people give it their largest and warmest sympathy. Leagues of this character are not restricted to our towns, but they can be found in rural communities.

In other sections the Leagues halt, limp and stagger along, breathing out a miserable existence. The young people take scarcely any stock in their advancement and many of the older people say they "do not see any use for its presence in the Church."

This should not be the case. The League is intended for a wise purpose and it can and should be used for the largest development of our young people, and unless they are rightly moulded they will not be efficient in the coming century. The League proposes to mould them for the Church and for God.

We would suggest to the pastors that they struggle to interest their young people in the League. After organizing them they will discover that if they will give them some definite work it will be a wonderful inspiration. We have this work in the Twentieth Century Educational Fund.

No live Methodist preacher can afford to neglect this wonderful opportunity for the strengthening of these centres of intellectual influence. The opportunity lost now means mortification and perhaps defeat in the coming years. Organize Leagues and thrill the young people with the idea of what this movement means to the Church and you will not only make the Leagues a success, but you will aid greatly in collecting what the Church expects for her institutions of learning.

We heartily approve the editorial management of The Epworth Era and earnestly advise its circulation among our people. As far as possible the reading course should be utilized.

The State conference held this year was well attended and was a marked success. We favor the continuance of the holding of these conferences and we also favor the proposed conference for the Southern States.

Respectfully submitted,

J. THOS. PATE, Chairman.

PETER STOKES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS AND TRUSTEES OF THE EPWORTH ORPHANAGE FOR THE YEAR 1899.

The Epworth Orphanage has completed another successful year. It has made steady and gratifying advancement from the beginning until now; but the past year has shown more progress than any one of the preceding years.

There are now in the Orphanage 46 boys and 48 girls. Of these 52 have professed saving faith in Christ and have been duly received into the Church this year. These added to those who were members previous to this year make 83 hopeful communicants of our Church. Special care has been given to the spiritual welfare of the children. A special meeting was held for them. They were carefully instructed before they were admitted to full fellowship in the Church, and their religious culture is a matter of daily concern. A more intelligent body of children is not to be found in any church fellowship. The authorities of the Orphanage are doing the finest and most successful missionary work. Children once rude and wild have become under such spiritual tuition the gentlest and truest of Christians.

We commend most heartily the department of work in our Orphanage. Our secular school, of which Rev. J. R. Walker is now the principal, has developed into one of the best of its kind. Our industrial departments have received wise and careful attention. The children are all taught some department of work. We have this year added marble cutting and carving to our other industries formerly reported.

The health of the children has been very good, except an epidemic of measles last winter. They are now, with a few exceptions, strong and vigorous.

The discipline of the children has been wise, gentle and successful.

The farming department has been fairly remunerative. The printing department has been managed in a business-like way and the income from this will not be less than $300. The marble work department is a new enterprise and gives promise of the most gratifying results.

There have been considerable improvements in the line of building. The dining room, kitchen and laundry have been added to and much improved. An eighteen-room brick building is in process of completion, with many conveniences and with artistic taste, to be used as an infirmary and dormitories.

Our sorest need just now is water. We have not yet solved the problem of water. Artesian wells seem to be impracticable on account of a substratum of impervious rock which no drill as yet used can penetrate.

The interest in the Orphanage has grown in the Church, Sunday School and popular favor. The contributions in money, food and clothing have been in advance of former years. This year's contributions will not fall far short of $10,000. On account of enhancement of property values and additions of assets, the plant is now estimated to be worth $40,000.

Since the last Conference Bro. L. D. Childs, a most faithful member of this board, has passed away, and the board has elected Edward Ehrlich in his place.

We cannot commend too highly the services of our Superintendent, Rev. G. H. Waddell and his co-adjutors, teachers and matrons. Our Superintendent has proven himself equal to the regular work and the new phases added to his responsibilities. He has our unqualified endorsement.

We commend our young institution to the continued and increased favor of the Church and to the friends of the orphans. We, under the blessings of God and the continued favor of our people, will be advanced to more and better work for the young and helpless children claiming our care and help. We beg to be considered in all regular contributions, and in all special free-will offerings.

We request that the Bishop presiding appoint Rev. G. H. Waddell Superintendent of the Epworth Orphanage.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. STOKES, President.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

The committee on minutes beg to submit:

The account of the publishers of the minutes of last Conference has been audited and found to be correct. The editorial work is worthy of our highest commendation.

We nominate E. O. Watson and S. H. Zimmerman as editors and publishers of the minutes of this session of the Conference.

We recommend that in view of getting out a special historic edition, an assessment of $800 be made for the publication of the minutes of 1900.

We also recommend that the preachers sell the minutes at 15 cents per copy, the proceeds to go to the credit of their assessment. The following are the receipts for 1899:

From pastoral charges	$496.60
From legal Conference	20.00
Balance from 1898	18.86

Total $535.46

L. B. HAYNES,

Chairman Committee on Minutes.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Methodism has, from its beginning, advocated and practiced temperance. This fact is known to the civilized world. Now that we should be called upon through a committee to put ourselves on record on this subject might possibly to some seem strange. There is a fact, however, that we must face. It is this: there are some among us who are not true to this principle of the Church. Our first duty, therefore, is to correct as far as possible this difficulty. This may be accomplished through teaching and enforcing our principles, or by dismembering the affected parts. For it must be admitted that among the evils threatening mankind with destruction, there are none more dangerous than that of intemperance. We shall not attempt to picture the fearful conditions resulting from the use of strong drink. Words cannot express the hopeless, helpless condition into which hundreds of human beings are thrown each year through its terrible influence. This ought not so to be. But so it is, and the church of God must bear her part of the awful responsibility.

We are glad to note, however, that from history, tradition and our personal observation that the drink habit is not increasing, but rather decreasing. Of this we are glad. The great moral and spiritual forces of the Church should be, must be, brought to bear upon this subject until the crime of manufacturing, selling and drinking intoxicating liquors shall be stamped out forever.

Every effort possible should be put forth by the church to teach her children the evils of intemperance. Every preacher from every pulpit in this fair land should turn the Gospel light of truth upon this curse until there could not be found a man who would so degrade himself as to handle in any way this gigantic liquid curse.

Much has been said and written upon the subjects of prohibition, dispensary and high license. Of these we cannot here speak more than to say that the word prohibition, when applied to the liquor traffic, is oft' times misunderstood; for every law enacted for the purpose of preventing crime is a prohibitory law.

Let us as a church teach, cause to be understood, that dealing in strong drink in any way as a beverage is a crime against God and against society, and cannot by the action of any body of men in any capacity assembled be made anything other than a crime. Thus public sentiment is formed against the traffic, which in reality is the only sure hope of final success in its complete overthrow.

So far as legislation on this subject is concerned, let us settle that with our right of suffrage as citizens, and not attempt to legislate in the councils of the church.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the "Christian Temperance Workers" in South Carolina, Mrs. E. S. Herbert, president, have the sympathy and co-operation of this body in the great work of teaching to our children and others, temperance.

2. That all of our people be encouraged both to teach and to practice total abstinence from all intoxicating beverages.

We also offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the above recommendations be carefully observed.

P. F. KILGO, Chairman.

R. L. HOLROYD, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

"A."—CONCERNING SEATING BRIGHAM H. ROBERTS IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

Firmly maintaining our strong belief in the sanctity of the institution of marriage taught by the word of God and upheld by the law of the land, and believing that any influence or movement that tends to lower the standard of marriage or in any way threatens its existence, strikes at the foundation of our society, and consequently at the very life of our church and our government; and, believing that having a confessed polygamist a member of the chief legislative body of our country will be a menace to the Divine institution of marriage as set forth in God's Word, and that every legitimate effort should be made to prevent this calamity to our Christian institutions, we, citizens of South Carolina and members of the South Carolina Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South, resolve:

1. That we enter our emphatic protest against the seating of Brigham H. Roberts, the representative-elect to Congress from Utah.

2. That the secretary of this Conference be instructed to convey at once information of this action to our congressmen.

"E."—CONCERNING PUBLISHING HOUSE CLAIM.

Whereas, there is widespread dissatisfaction among the preachers and members of our Church in this Conference, on account of the methods employed by the book-agents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the collection of the war claim against the United States government, and

Whereas, the United States Senate, after thorough investigation, has declared that the Senate was deceived by our book-agents in collecting said claim, and

Whereas, the General Conference, in re-electing Barbee & Smith, book-agents, was not in possession of the facts afterwards developed in connection with the methods used in collecting this claim; therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That the South Carolina Conference, now in session, desires to express disapproval of the deceptive methods used by the book-agents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in aiding E. B. Stahlman in prosecuting the claim before the Senate of the United States.

Resolved, 2d, That this Conference asks the resignation of Barbee & Smith, in the interest of peace and harmony in the Church, from the office which they now hold.

IN MEMORIAM.

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WHO DIED IN 1899.

REV. JAMES C. BISSELL.

Rev. James C. Bissell, the steadfast friend, the faithful Christian and minister, was admitted on trial at the Conference held in Sumter, S. C., December, 1873, and died in Columbia, S. C., January 26th, 1899.

For eighteen of the years intervening he served in the active ministry. He was "found faithful." Fully consecrated to God, he entered the Conference in his early manhood and gave the strength of his life to his Master's service.

He never faltered. With humbleness of mind, gentleness of disposition, purity of character, singleness of aim, there was blended a fixedness of purpose. He could say, "My heart is fixed, O, God!" whithersoever he was sent he was ready to go. Men, women and children trusted and loved him. The Divine Spirit owned his labors. He felt that he was Christ's ambassador, and he prayed men to be reconciled to God. Many were brought to Christ under his ministry. No man of this Conference was more blameless in life than he. Then, he loved his brethren, and who of us ever heard him speak uncharitably of a brother? For eight years he was on our superannuated list. When this began his body was a shattered one. He never rallied, but "faith was the victory by which he overcame" and the triumph was complete. In those years he never murmured. He "knew whom he had trusted." His widowed one and six children survive. He left them rich in his own good name. God of the widowed and fatherless, be thou their friend. He was buried in Spartanburg. Faithful, self-sacrificing brother, farewell, until we overtake you again.

WM. A. ROGERS.

REV. D. Z. DANTZLER.

Daniel Zimmerman Dantzler, son of Lewis and Mary Dantzler, was born in Orangeburg County, S. C., March 4, 1847, and departed this life in the city of Orangeburg, August 30, 1899. Reared in a home of piety, he was converted and joined the church in early life. From that day to the end as member and minister, he was a consecrated and consistent Christian. From the schools near his home, he went to the South Carolina College, and, in due course of time, graduated with credit. He studied law, but turned from this profession under the imperative of a clear call to preach the Gospel. He entered this Conference at the first session held in Orangeburg, December, 1875. From year to year he went wheresoever he was appointed, preaching the deep things of God and living the Gospel he preached. In what we call hard places and easy places he labored for the weal of men, and his labor was not in vain in the Lord. Finally the Master said: "It is enough, come up higher," and he passed through the gates into the city of God.

Shortly after he entered the Conference, he married Miss Frances Georgett Cook of Bennettsville. She was to him a true helpmeet until his earthly labors ended. Four children, with their mother, still survive to thank God for a father whose heart poured out sweet tribute into their lives and whose association was a benediction all the years through.

Brother Dantzler was emphatically a Christian gentleman. In word and deed and thought he was clean, courteous, considerate, consistent. No word passed his lips that he would have held back from a mother's ear or from the hearing of the Most High. No act of his life was such that the full blaze of day might not have witnessed it, and the eyes of humankind might not have looked upon it. His thoughts were those moulded by a pure heart. True to God and man, his shield was stainless when it fell from his arm in the hour of dying triumph.

He was a student among students. Except when duty called him away, he literally lived with the master minds, whose words and thoughts constitute the literature of the past and present. Wasting no time with trash, he drank the purest and deepest streams of living waters. Few men read so much, digested so thoroughly, remembered so well, or used so profitably. No wonder he was a scholar of scholars, a thinker of the most thoughtful.

Brother Dantzler was a preacher whose sermons were clear, strong and orthodox, uttered in chaste and elegant words, and spoken with the unction of the Holy One. The only drawback was a weak voice. Had he enjoyed the power of strong speech, few would have surpassed him in the pulpit. A cultured woman to whom he was once pastor, said: "I dread the slightest noise during Mr. Dantzler's sermon, for I lose by it a splendid truth." Thank God, now, he can speak in the strong, sweet tones of the redeemed in heaven.

Let us cherish the memory of this gentle, devout, consecrated man. Let us emulate his loyalty to God, to the church, to humanity. Let us follow him as he followed Christ until we shall find him again where the tree of life is blooming and the faithful are forever with the Lord.

JOHN O. WILLSON.

REV. WM. B. VERDIN.

Within plain view of the Blue Ridge mountains, on August 15, 1866, in the County of Greenville, S. C., William B. Verdin was born. His youth was marked by the strictest probity and manly virtue. His educational advantages were not what he desired, but he utilized every opportunity that crossed his path for self-improvement.

He was fortunate in being able to spend a year or two at Wofford College. By steadfast application and diligent study of men and books, he developed into a young man of more than ordinary culture. There were several traits in his character that charm and attract.

1. He was perfectly honest. About him was no pretense of hollow hypocrisy. Every sham and every veneer he utterly detested. What he was, he was, and he claimed nothing more. His dealings were signalized by the most exalted integrity. It was at this point that he made the most profound impression on the minds of business men. Before he would have failed to cancel an honest debt, he would have sacrificed the last garment out of his scanty wardrobe and sold the last book off the shelves of his library.

2. He was very pure in thought and word. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." No soiled remark ever defiled his lips. A great thinker has said: "The conversation reveals the true condition of the heart." Tried and tested by this axiom, he was one of the purest of men. He stands forth as chaste as the ice and as spotless as the snow that mantled every winter the mountains upon which the eyes of his youth often rested.

3. He was very industrious. When, like a hungry Bengal tiger, disease was gnawing away at his vitals, he pressed forward with his work. Not a single feature did he neglect. When scarcely able to walk, he went from house to house, securing subscriptions to The Southern Christian Advocate and The Missionary Review. Bitter cold and scorching heat, heavy rain and stifling dust never deterred him for an hour. His physician said to me: "His energy was really marvellous. How he lived and labored in his feeble condition I do not understand." He was actuated by power Divine.

4. As a preacher he was clear, scriptural and deeply spiritual. He struggled for immediate results and he was not disappointed. God gave him seals to his ministry. He will wear no starless crown in "the city of the Great King." The jewels he gathered will flash in beauty and grandeur during the endless cycles of the future.

5. As a Christian he met the demands of the Gospel. He was no loud boaster of his attainments in grace. He did not mildew the "secret things of God" by exposing them to the chill and the dampness of an unsympathetic world. His love for God burned like an eternal flame. Men took knowledge of the fact that his abiding place was under "the shadow of the Almighty." Almost every day for months before he vanished from human sight he was in my home.

He was conscious of the fact that he was nearing "the silent sea"; that soon his boat would anchor in the harbor of "the fadeless land." He had no fears and no doubts. More than once he remarked to me:

"Oh, Dr. Pate, you do not know how tired I am. I long to fall asleep in the arms of Jesus."

His longing has been satisfied. On July 22, 1899, the weary, wasted and worn young preacher found "the rest that remaineth for the people of God." The toils of life are over. His rest is sweet.

J. THOS. PATE.

Tribute to the Wives and Widows of Preachers.

Who, under God, have done more for the success of the Gospel than the faithful wives who have made possible the ministry of their husbands? Therefore, it is proper that those who have gone from us be recognized in this memorial service. Eight have died during the year.

Mrs. Laura W. Walker, widow of Rev. Alex. W. Walker, died in Spartanburg, S. C., December 25th, 1898, at the age of 79 years. Hers was a quiet spirit, and a helpful life. She lived for God and the church below, until called to the church triumphant. Hers was a sure reward.

Mrs. Lucy C. Little, widow of Rev. L. M. Little, died in Sumter, S. C., January 7th, 1899, aged 76 years. Full of faith, kindness and good works, her life was a benediction. She has followed her sainted husband through the gates.

Mrs. Mary F. Dantzler, wife of Rev. D. D. Dantzler, was born in Newberry, S. C., October 21st, 1841, and died in Orangeburg, S. C., January 20th, 1899. A devoted Christian, a true helpmeet, an earnest worker, a devoted mother, she filled well her place in life and rests well.

Mrs. Anna Belle Rice, wife of Rev. John A. Rice, D. D., was born in Lynchburg, S. C., April 16th, 1862, and died in Columbia, S. C., April 18th, 1899. Converted early, educated under Christian influences, of beautiful character, broad sympathy, bright intellect, she fulfilled well her mission here, and heard the call, "Enter into the joy of thy Lord."

Mrs. Louisa Rembert Mood, widow of Rev. W. W. Mood, died at Providence, S. C., August 5th, 1899, aged 68 years. Pious and cultivated, she was more; a devoted Christian, faithful daughter, wife, mother, friend. "Her works do follow her," and the "record is on high."

Mrs. Bessie Evans Wroton, wife of Rev. W. H. Wroton, was born in Orangeburg County, July 29th, 1861, and died in her native county, September 13th, 1899. Suddenly called, she was in the path of faith and service. Another has written, "She was true to home and church." "What I do thou knowest not now."

Mrs. J. E. Massebeau, widow of Rev. J. B. Massebeau, was born in Yorkville, S. C., 1834, and died in Springfield, S. C., September 29th, 1899. She was diligent, aiding her husband, and preparing her children for life work, one for the ministry. She inherits "glory, honor, eternal life."

Mrs. Mary Caroline Inabinet, wife of Rev. L. L. Inabinet, died October 19, 1899, in Townville, S. C., 32 years of age. Her end was peace. The church to which she gave her life is richer that she has lived.
